What you need to know when expanding your business to the United States!

Jacob Willemsen, owner Trans Atlantic Business Services (TABS), New York
www.tabsinc.com

No doubt that you have learned some valuable lessons running a business at home! How can you translate those lessons to the United States? Jacob will share with you some of the rules and requirements governing entry into the U.S. market and what you can do to avoid potentially costly mistakes!

Steve Maggi, U.S. Immigration Lawyer, owner SMA Law firm, New York www.smalawyers.com

Expanding your business in the United States is one thing, being able to work and live there is not the automatic result!! Steve will explain how you can realize your dream of living, working or running a business legally in the U.S. by acquiring a visa or green card. What are the options for a Dutch national?

Nita Korsten, Intercultural Management Consultant, owner Crust Young, New York / Amsterdam
www.crustyoung.com

It is a common belief that the differences between the Dutch and American business cultures are no big deal! In reality we often see Dutch business people struggling during presentations, negotiations and collaborations! What should you know when doing business in the United States?
